

THE WESTERN CITIZEN

To Liberty, love, that gives the flower
Of life its lustre and perfume,
And we are made without it—COWPER

PARIS, KENTUCKY,
FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 20, 1865.

In order that our hands might enjoy a day or two of the Holidays, we have issued only a half sheet this week. It is a custom with all weekly papers not to print a paper during the week, though we have generally done so. We tender our patrons our best wishes for their health, happiness and prosperity, and earnestly hope, that our country may be soon restored to the most peaceful and harmonious unity in feeling and interest, between the two sections lately in deadly strife.

General Grant's report of his recent visit to the South, is an endorsement of the President's views. "I am satisfied," he says, "that the masses of the thinking men of the South accept the present situation of affairs in good faith." The people regard the two questions of slavery and the right of States to secede from the Union, the Lieutenant General declares, as having "been settled forever by the highest tribunals." He was "pleased to learn from the leading men whom I (he) met that they not only accepted the decision arrived at as final, but * * a fortunate one for the whole country, they receiving the like benefits from it with those who opposed them in the field and in the council." He urges the entire withdrawal of negro troops from the South and for the most obvious reasons, and the retention only of small garrisons of white troops for the protection alike of whites and blacks.

Eight of the States which constituted the Southern Confederacy, voted for the Constitutional Amendment. If these States were competent to amend the supreme law of the land, how does Congress dare to refuse them, representation under that Constitution, which guarantees to all the States a Congressional delegation?—Either Arkansas, Louisiana, Virginia, South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia, and Tennessee ought to have representation in Congress, or their votes should not be counted, to make the requisite majority, to ratify the amendment.

Four days later foreign news have been received by the City of Washington. Her dates are to the 14th. The Persia arrived on the 12th. The trials of the Fenians were progressing, and sentences of penal servitude for life had been passed. The text of England and France advices in the Spanish-Chilian matter reached Madrid on the 9th. The result was not known. Reports from Paris confirm the arrival of Stephens in that city. It is said that Napoleon, fearing that Maximilian would sail for France with the Empress, had sent to Mexico a minister to persuade him to stay. The London Times had arrived at the conclusion that the American people were peaceably disposed. The Jamaica atrocities had occasioned great excitement. A commission had been appointed to investigate the matter, and the Governor of the island has been removed.

The New York News reports that more than thirty thousand negroes have died in, and around Atlanta, Ga., within the last twelve months. An equal mortality has attended all the localities along the Gulf coast, where negroes have congregated about Federal garrisons and encampments. An estimate has been made that, during the war, the mortality amongst the negroes, has been not less than forty per cent.

Justice Davis, of the United States Supreme Court, the executor of Mr. Lincoln's estate, reports that Mr. Lincoln left about $85,000, $75,000 of which is in five twenty stocks. He left in Springfield about four thousand dollars' worth of real estate. Congress is about to vote he real $100,000, four years' salary. His two sons will be well-to-do in the world.

The excluded Southern Members of Congress have held a caucus and determined to return home, with the exception of one member from each State, who will remain and urge the claim for admission.

It is believed that the Freedmen's Bureau that at least two hundred thousand freedmen in the Southern States will be dependent upon the Bureau for subsistence during the present winter.

It is said that orders have been issued by the Government for the arrest of several of the late officials of the rebel Government, but upon what specific charges has not transpired.

The people of Washington voted on the 21st inst., on the question of extending the right of suffrage to persons of color. Seven thousand votes were cast against, and only seventy five for the extension.

The large Commissary building attached to Camp Douglas, at Salt Lake City, was destroyed by fire on the 20th inst. The building was filled with supplies, and the loss will reach a million dollars.

The French Minister, it is said, has promised the President that the French troops in Mexico will soon be withdrawn, and that the Republic of Mexico, at an early day, will be reinstated.

The Fenians are reported to be on the eve of declaring war against Canada. The two factions are said to have compromised and communications have been opened with the Head Center, Stephens.

A letter from Owensville, Bath county, Ky., to the Louisville Democrat, says:

"Why is it that your citizens do not take some steps in regard to finishing the Lexington and Big Sandy railroad? I understand that the Baltimore and Ohio road will be completed to the mouth of Big Sandy by the 1st of September, 1866, and if we people in Kentucky will only do our duty and complete the road to that point, there will be a direct line from Louisville to Washington City, and through a country that has inexhaustible quantities of coal, iron ore and timber, the finest in the world. There is in this country a bed of iron ore, in one mass, containing as much as all the balance of the State put together. In fact, it is a hill of iron ore. There are 12 or 15 miles completed on the Eastern end, and the cars are running regularly and doing a good business; the road is nearly all graded from Lexington to Winchester, a distance of 18 miles. It is graded at different points along the whole route, and if the Louisvillians would only look at the matter and consult their interests they would go to work and build this road, for then they could get their coal and timber without depending upon the uncertain navigation of the Ohio."

The expenditures for pensions is now $15,000,000. A bill is being prepared by the Republican leaders in the House of Representatives to double the expenditure.

Since the opening of Congress, no less than forty amendments to the Constitution have been offered by radical members in the Senate and House.

The Judiciary Committee have reported a bill to extend the right of negro suffrage in the District of Columbia. The bill will be disposed of on the 10th of January.

It appears that the cholera is again raging in portions of Asia, and that in addition to the scourge, the locusts have also made their appearance.

The Legislature of Virginia has adopted a touching appeal to West Virginia to re-unite herself with the "Old Dominion."

General Logan having fully and finally declined the mission to the Government of Juarez, the place has been tendered to Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, of Ohio, who, it is presumed, will accept it.

The fine lot of cattle taken from our country, to New York, by Messrs. Jacoby and Penn is thus noticed by a New York exchange:—"Jacoby & Penn's 48 Kentucky grades were mostly fed by themselves in Bourbon County, where several of them had drawn prizes; were nearly all 4 years old, some very fine animals among them, a few not as fine, but all above first class, rated 1 1/2 cwt., and sold by T. J. Goff at 21c24c—some probably at 25c; at least the owners call them that, while butchers declare them still higher. Four were sold at $350 each, 4 others to Phil. Ottman, of Fulton Market, at $300; 4 more at $200; some at 21c to weigh 62 lbs to the cwt., and 12 of about the last to S. Williams, of Fulton Market, at $215 per head—one other pair at $245, all to first class butchers, who intend to make a splendid Christmas show."

The Fishermen's Convention is to be held in Frankfort, on the 22nd of next month, instead of the 2nd, as stated in our last paper.

Messrs. Thomas, Harlan, Young, Newell, and Potter were a committee in pursuance of a resolution of the Legislature, to investigate the rates of toll for transportation of passengers and freights by the various railroads of the State, and to ascertain whether any of them charge a greater rate of toll than is allowed by their several characters.

CATTLE MARKETS.
NEW YORK, December, 26.
BEEF CATTLE—First quality, $17.50 a 18.50; fat to good, $14.00 a 14.50; common, $11.50 a 13.50; inferior, $10.00 a 10.50.
SHEEP AND LAMBS—Extras, per head, $15.00 a 20.00; prime quality, $9.00 a 10.00; ordinary, 5.00 a 5.50; inferior, 3.75 a 4.25.
SWINE—Heavy corn-fed, per lb, 10c a 11c; light and medium, 10c a 10.5c; still fed, 10c a 10.5c. The market for Beef Cattle was without change. The demand was fair, but not very active, though first class Steers met with ready sale at fair prices. Common and inferior Cattle were in limited demand, and the market was without change. The bulk of the Cattle sold from 13c a 17c. Fancy Cattle were in good supply, and sold higher, ranging from 17c a 22c per pound, as to quality.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 28.
Old red wheat $2. New $1.61 a 1.70. Choice old Kentucky white held at $2.50.
Corn in the ear 55c.
Oats dull at 41c.
Rye 56c.
Cotton dull at 47c for middling.
Whisky, $2.25.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 27.
Hogs continue to improve, and fully gained yesterday's outside figure, though there were liberal transactions to-day at $11 a 11.25. At $11.50 there is now a steady bid not a brisk market, although the offerings are rather light and sellers asking a further advance. It is observable that the some of the packers who have yielded their points of objection to operating at the figures current, they are now "dipping in" pretty freely, still they are cautious in aiming to get clear of such stuff. Vendors have doubts of a fast sale as prepared, and some of them have been more free to sellers from the block than is their usual want.

MARRIED.
At the residence of Mr. James Short, in this city, on the 26th inst., by the Rev. Geo. Vandoren, Mr. WILLARD S. SPEAR, to Mrs. MARTHA J. SHORT, both of Lafayette Indiana.

We thank the parties for their kind remembrance of the printer, and tender them our best wishes.

DIED.
On Saturday morning 1st, of Consumption, Mrs. Mary F. JACOB, wife of Mr. J. F. Jacoby, of this county.

Proclamation of Emancipation.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State of the United States to all whom these presents may come, greeting:—
Know YE, That whereas the Congress of the United States, on the 1st of February last, passed a resolution which in the words following, namely: "A resolution submitting to the Legislatures of the several States a proposition to amend the Constitution of the United States."

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, two-thirds of both Houses concurring, that the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States, as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of said Legislatures, shall be valid to all intents and purposes as a part of said Constitution, namely:

Article 13, section 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist in the United States or any place subject to its jurisdiction.

Section 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.
And WHEREAS, It appears from official documents on file in this Department that the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed, as aforesaid, has been ratified by the Legislatures of the States of Illinois, Rhode Island, Michigan, Maryland, New York, West Virginia, Maine, Kansas, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Ohio, Missouri, Nevada, Indiana, Louisiana, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Vermont, Tennessee, Arkansas, Connecticut, New Hampshire, South Carolina, Alabama, North Carolina, and Georgia—in all twenty-seven States.

And WHEREAS, The whole number of States is thirty-six; and whereas, the before specially named States whose Legislatures have ratified the said proposed amendment constitute three-fourths of the actual number of States in the United States: Now, therefore, be it known that I, William H. Seward, Secretary of State of the United States, by virtue of the act in pursuance of the second section of the act of Congress approved the 20th day of April, 1818, entitled "An act to provide for the publication of the laws of the United States and for other purposes," do hereby certify that the amendment aforesaid has become valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the Constitution of the United States.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Department of State to be affixed.
Done at the city of Washington, this 18th day of December, in the year of our Lord, 1865; and of the independence of the United States the 90th.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State.

Call for an Agricultural Convention at Frankfort, on the 11th of Jan., 1866.

At a meeting of the Kentucky State Agricultural Society, in Frankfort, on the 14th instant, a resolution was adopted authorizing the undersigned as a committee to call a convention to be held in Frankfort, on the 11th of January, 1866, under the auspices of the State Agricultural Society, for the purpose of considering the subject of labor in Kentucky. The present deplorable condition of the labor system of the State renders it vastly important that steps should be immediately taken to supply the lack of labor, and with a view thereto to encourage the immigration of a desirable class of laborers to Kentucky. The undersigned, therefore, earnestly urge upon the farmers in all portions of the State to send delegates to the convention. Let every county be represented. The subjects to be considered embrace the most vital interests of the Commonwealth, and we hope, for the future prosperity and wealth of the State, the convention will be largely attended.
